

The Pain Family

You know them; they are numerous, and make their presence felt everywhere. The names of the family are Headache, Toothache, Earache, Backache, Stomach ache, Neuralgia, etc. They are sentinels that warn you of any derangement of your system. When the brain nerves become exhausted or irritated, Headache makes you miserable; if the stomach nerves are weak, indigestion results, and you double up with pain, and if the more prominent nerves are affected, Neuralgia simply makes life unendurable. The way to stop pain is to soothe and strengthen the nerves. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills do this. The whole Pain family yield to their influence. Harmless if taken as directed.

"I find Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills an excellent remedy for overcoming headache, neuralgia and distressing pains of all sorts. I have used them for the past seven years in this capacity with the best of results."
MRS. JOE MERRILL, Peru, Ind.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first package will benefit. If it fails, he will return your money. 25 cents, 25 cents. Never sold in bulk.

OUTLOOK GROWS UGLY

China Situation Is Nearing Crisis

GUNS FOR LEGATION

The Guards at Pekin Are Warned That Serious Trouble Is Impending—Chinese Army Is Not Safe.

New York, Feb. 16.—A special cable from London says:

The rekin correspondent of the Times says that all the legation guards have been warned that danger is impending. The secretary of the German legation has obtained an additional field battery. The position in China is becoming increasingly ugly. The trouble will probably spread from the south to the north. The government, eager to save the dynasty, is seeking to placate the foreigners. Viceroy Yuan Shih Kai, on the pretence of suppressing the Chinchows, who are absolutely quiescent, is sending six regiments with artillery to Chinchow. It is presumed that the real reason for the dispatch of these troops is that the army is honeycombed with secret societies, and the government wishes to remove a dangerous weapon from the neighborhood of the capital.

GOVERNMENT'S REPORT SHOW BOYCOTT INJURY

From South China Comes Statement That Many Years Will Be Needed to Remove Its Effects.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 16.—From the many reports received by the state department from its representatives in the East relative to the anti-American boycott, two selected at random from the north and the south have been made public. In neither is there any hint of violence and the movement, it is stated, is confined strictly to trade limitations.

The report from North China brings the history of events up to the close of 1905. At that date the boycott movement had been "nearly all talk" in the principal cities, says the correspondent, who adds:

"As to the condition, it can only be said that thorough investigation will prove that trade competition has as much to do with it as Chinese antagonism. That underhanded methods have been employed against the Standard Oil Company and the British-American Tobacco Company is becoming plain every day. At present the attack on these two companies is apparently centered in and around Hankow, where circulars have appeared, and also many evidences of unfriendly intent."

"But at Soochow, Chinkiang, Changchow, Wuhu, Kiukiang and many other places tributary to and on the Yangtze there has also been more or less antagonism of late. The merchants are against the boycott, but under the lash of the guilds they must give a half-hearted acquiescence at least. If the officials so desire they can squelch the recurrences of the movement in this section and by so doing gain the support of the merchants. But again there is the now powerful student class, which under the teachings of foreign educated Chinese and perhaps others not friendly to American interests where they conflict with their own, has developed an influence recognized by officials, guilds, merchants and laborers."

From south China, and, in fact, clear down to the Straits Settlements, comes the report that there is no improvement in the boycott situation; that trade is badly affected in most lines, and there is little or no business outside the small European trade. An American sewing machine company reports that Chinese are afraid to go into the place, although some would like to buy but dare not have a machine in their possession. Still the authorities claim there is no recognition here."

The report concludes: "If the boycott is called off tomorrow it will take many years to remove the ill effect from the injury done. At Peking American firms could not move any more or have any goods in their possession. And Chinese refuse to take the goods which they had already ordered."

WHITE STILL STRIVING.

Belief That He Will Yet Achieve Harmony at Algiers.

Algiers, Feb. 16.—The Franco-German controversy over the vital points of the proposed Moroccan reforms remains unchanged, although a feeling prevails among the delegates that some decisive step is not far off.

Ambassador White, chief of the American delegation, in his efforts to find a compromise, has not varied from the course which he has followed since the conference began, and the neutral delegations believe he will ultimately succeed.

Berlin, Feb. 15.—It is semi-officially announced that the reply of M. Revoil, head of the French mission at Algiers, to the explanation by Herr von Radowitz, the first German delegate, of Germany's views on the Moroccan police question produced an excellent impression on the German delegate, and that in consequence the present French attitude toward the situation at Algiers is much improved.

DR. CHASE'S

Blood and Nerve Food

A New Cure For Paralysis

Doctors Puzzled, Professors Amazed, at the Success of Dr. Chase's Treatment in Curing Patients Thought Incurable and Given Up to Die.

Paralysis is the result of a wearing-out or injury to some part of the human machinery, which reduces the power to such an extent that one or more organs fail to perform their proper functions. Dr. Chase's Blood and Nerve Food revitalizes the blood, increases the circulation and forces new life and energy into the paralyzed parts.

When the trouble is confined to the blood and nerves, Dr. Chase's Blood and Nerve Food will make a cure without any other remedy, but it often happens, and especially in Locomotor Ataxia, that the kidneys, spine, bladder and the bowels are affected, and in such cases Dr. Chase's Kidney Food and Liver Food should also be taken.

You then have a complete building-up treatment that gives new vitality and action to every part of the body.

If you have any symptoms of this disease, don't fail to write Dr. Chase, 224 North Tenth Street, Philadelphia, Pa., and you will receive special advice free, with testimonials, and more information on this subject than you have ever had.

GUAM IS FLOURISHING.

Uncle Sam's Pacific Domain Is Becoming Assimilated.

Agua, Guam, Jan. 5. (By correspondence.) The finances of the island are in a more flourishing condition than for some time past, trade having received a considerable impetus from the formation of several new concerns and the increase of the Japanese. Properties are advancing in value and larger crops are being raised.

The American schooner North Star, Capt. Fraser, was wrecked on the east coast of the island of Rosa, with all her cargo save a few cases consigned to Guam. Capt. Fraser and the crew and five passengers for Guam from the North Star, with the small portion of the recovered cargo were later brought here.

Christmas was celebrated in as true American style as the possibilities of the situation would permit. Great interest was taken by the Americans in the celebrations for the native children. A number of entertainments were provided. A feature was a Christmas tree, magnificently decorated, which was drawn by six plumed mules with costumed outriders and preceded by a native band and from which Santa Claus distributed abundance of good cheer. Compulsory education has been in operation but two years. The desire to learn English and the improvement in the schools have assisted in the work, and it is believed that within the next term every child of school age will be brought within the operation of the laws.

GRANITEVILLE.

A special meeting of Junior Court, Graniteville, No. 3, F. of A., will be held in Miles' hall on Saturday evening, February 17. All members are requested to be present and bring their due cards.

The Single Step.

"There is no field of thought," remarked the Office Philosopher, after he had sat in rapid contemplation for several minutes—"there is no field of thought where the single step that separates the sublime from the ridiculous may be so surely and emphatically taken as in the writing of poetry. Don't you think so?"

"Sure!" the Horse Editor responded.

"The great poet," the Office Philosopher continued, "is he who, by some divine instinct, recognizes the point where the variation of a single line or word would result in taking this unfortunate step, the poetaster is he who does not recognize this danger point, and his melody degenerates into discord and his pathos into bathos. Don't you think so?"

"It's a cinch!" the Horse Editor responded.

"Probably a concrete instance or two," the Office Philosopher musingly remarked, "would make my proposition even clearer. For example, Halleck wrote:

"At midnight in his guarded tent the Turk was dreaming of the hour."

"There is a martial tone in that line, and its every word seems unconsciously to anticipate the call, 'To arms!' and this tone is continued throughout the poem. But suppose that Halleck had lacked the fine poetic perception he displayed, and had followed the foregoing line with this:

"When he should drink the cocktail blent, or, if he chose, a whiskey sour. 'Do you see how we would have taken the one disastrous step!'"

"You bet I'm on!" the Horse Editor replied.

"Just one other example," continued the Office Philosopher. "Moore wrote: 'The heart that has truly loved never forgets but as truly loves to the close.'"

"As in all of Moore's verse, there is indescribable melody in that line; it sings to the soul. But suppose he had followed it with this:

"Unless a divorce in a passion it gets, and hints for a chance to propose."

"If Halleck and Moore had not possessed the fine."

"Aw, come off!" the Horse Editor gruffly interposed; "I don't believe there are any such horses on turf today!"

Then the Office Philosopher asked the other one what he would take and they went out together.—San Francisco Call.

FIRE AT SHOREHAM.

Kendall's Store Building Destroyed—Loss About $10,000.

Shoreham, Feb. 16.—Kendall's store building was destroyed by fire Wednesday night with an estimated loss of $10,000. Fire caught from a defective chimney and as there was no fire protection the entire building was consumed, together with the stock of general merchandise owned by Mr. Kendall, who occupied the ground floor and basement and the furniture of the Masonic fraternity on the second floor. Little was saved. There is some insurance on the building and some on the stock and furniture, but it will not cover the loss. The structure was a well preserved wooden building valued at $3,000. The stock was worth $5,000 and the Masonic loss aggregated $1,000.
